-Undergraduate students in F-1 or J-1 status must enroll full-time each Fall/Spring semester; full-time is a minimum 12 credits, of which at least 9 credits must be in-person. Tuition estimates shown do not include summer tuition.

-Graduate students in F-1 or J-1 status must enroll full-time each Fall/Spring semester; full time is a minimum 9 credits, of which at least 6 credits must be in-person. Some graduate programs require summer enrollment; therefore, tuition costs may vary based on requirements for your specific program. -Tuition and fees listed are estimates and subject to change. Tuition rates are set annually. Some programs may charge tuition at a higher rate. Current tuition rates can be found at Tuition & Fees - Marymount University. Estimated living expenses are based on the DC metro area.

SOURCE(S) OF FUNDING

Marymount University is required to review your financial documentation prior to issuing an I-20 or DS-2019. Proof of funding documents must meet University requirements, which can be found at Proof of Funding – ISSS You must show sufficient funds available for your first year and commitment of support for subsequent years. You are responsible for all payments to the university in accordance with the tuition/fee schedule in effect at the time of your enrollment for each semester of your attendance. Note: employment in F/J status is restricted; do not anticipate employment as a means of support. We reserve the right to request additional documentation prior to issuing your Form I-20 or DS-2019.

All proof of funding documents must be in English, on official letterhead of the issuing agency, and include the following: name of account holder(s), total amount available (liquid funds), currency type, and date of issue. Documents must be dated within one year of your planned program start date (except as noted for U.S. stock portfolio accounts). For all non-U.S. issuing agencies, the official's signature or agency stamp is required, even if the document states that no signature is required. Additional requirements for scholarship award letters and education loan letters: must include student's name, amount of award, purpose of funding, and any limitations. Additional requirements for corporate sponsorship letters: must be signed by the CEO or CFO. Special requirements for U.S. based stock portfolio accounts: we will consider 80% of the value stated on the certificate and it must be dated within 1 month of your request for I-20. Gold certificates may only be considered if issued by a government agency, bank, or U.S. investment company.
